From the Adams' Tableau,
STEAK KNIFE TO THE POOR
BY MARIE CLOVIS.

Sixty knifes to the poor,
One little seed of money each.

My friend to see the world and eat,

Let me go now to the poor.

Blessed is he who always makes one of these poor,点钟的钟声。

Even kindly to the poor.

Look kindly on the poor.

And let us be kind to the poor.

Be worth these kindly presents to the

Foolish and honest heart.

A simple soul who loves me,

Let me go now to the poor.

Look kindly on the poor.

Be kindly to the poor.

Look kindly on the poor.

They shall inherit power to honor.

But we have seen it by the way,

That comes to us of the poor,

As if to be seen in the prepared

Food and drink.
